DR. DONALD M. ROCKWELL

On March 3rd, Dr. Donald M. Rockwell announced his intention to resign as academic Dean. He made his decision for reasons of health. He will continue as a member of the faculty until his retirement in 1972.

Dr. Rockwell, throughout his career as professor, chairman and dean, always kept his door open to students. He is famous for his kindness, courtesy and interest in students who through the years brought their problems to him for counsel and understanding.

In his personal reply to the Dean, President Stauffer wrote that "above all, the greatness of your teaching is well impressed upon me, as it is upon all who have had the good fortune of entering your classroom or shared with you a problem at the laboratory bench."

A member of the faculty since 1932, Dr. Rockwell was named acting dean in October, 1966 and dean in 1967. Prior to this appointment, he was chairman of the division of natural sciences and mathematics and for 15 years had served as chairman of the department of chemistry. As a professor, he held the Jacob H. and Rachel Brumbaugh Chair and for five years found time to direct the National Science Foundation Institute for high school chemistry teachers on Juniata's campus.

When the Brumbaugh Science Center was built in 1966, the chemistry wing was named Donald M. Rockwell Hall in honor of the man who helped Juniata maintain its position of national prominence.

Dr. Rockwell received his B.S. degree from the University of Vermont in 1927 and his Ph.D. from Yale in 1931. He served as a Calco Post-Doctoral Fellow at Yale in 1931-32 and spent a year of sabbatical leave (1962-63) in further study at the California Institute of Technology. In 1967, he was honored with a distinguished service award by the University of Vermont.

A community leader in Huntingdon, Dr. Rockwell has been active in the Boy Scouts, Salvation Army, Huntingdon Rotary Club, Music Club, Huntingdon Business and Industry and served numerous community campaigns. He has also served the United Church of Christ in many leadership positions.

We express to him, his wife and his family our very real affection and regard.

Fall Mountain Day

As busloads of classroom-weary students headed for Colrain State Park, the sky was filled with clouds. But even with the threat of rain, all were ready for a scenery change. Those who were inclined to be athletic participated in rounds of frisbee, volleyball, or football. And anyone in the mood to challenge nature took to the trails. After lunch everyone gathered to cheer on the interclass tug of war and the girl-guy egg throwing contest. And even rain could not dampen the spirit of onlookers and participants in the Senior-Faculty football game!

The Frosh display the fruit of their labor.

Float competition this year centered on the theme "Those Were The Days." After long hours of hard work, each class had its float ready for display. Originality and creativity was shown in the float creations. The Seniors emerged as the victors of the contest with a float which featured a rotating carousel of childhood and adolescent years. The days of the Roman orgy were recaptured in the Junior float which displayed dancing girls and grape eating men, for which the Juniors took second place. The Frosh captured third place in their first float contest. The Freshmen float was decorated by cheerleaders and a football field in memory of the Orange Bowl. Recess and playground activities were the center attraction of the Sophomore Class float which took fourth place.

Homecoming 1969

The 1969 Homecoming weekend began with a pep rally Friday night. The rally started in front of Ellis Hall, traveled around campus collecting people, and ended at South lot. Here the Queen, Ann Reganis, and her Senior attendant, Cheryl Diffenderfer, and Junior attendant, Sue Moyer, were introduced. Saturday dawned clear and sunny and the classes presented their floats based on the theme "Those were the Days." The afternoon remained clear for the Queen's coronation, the parade, and the game against Geneva. The weekend ended with the David Frye show and the Homecoming Dance.

David Frye

Homecoming Weekend at Juniata was highlighted by the appearance of the famous impersonator David Frye. Performing before a packed auditorium, David Frye included in his repertoire, the impersonation of figures in the entertainment world as James Cagney, Kirk Douglas, and Ed Sullivan. In the political world, he illustrated by voice and character actions, the figures of Lyndon Johnson, President Nixon, William F. Buckley, and George Wallace.

David Frye is a nationally known character in the field of entertainment, and has frequently appeared on the television shows of Johnny Carson and Merv Griffin. The Juniata campus and their guests experienced an enjoyable hour watching David Frye.

The Peppermint Rainbow

Memorial Gymnasium was the scene on October 17 for Juniata's second big-name entertainment, The Peppermint Rainbow. Preceded by the Uptown Trio, the group performed a variety of song types with an enthusiasm that spread to the audience. The Peppermint Rainbow provided a free-swinging concert where the group and the concert really did "Get Together."

This Is Your Captain Speaking

Oller Auditorium became the scene of the original musical "This Is Your Captain Speaking" in the Fall Production presented November 6, 7, 8. Written by Will and Debbie Brandau, the play was staged by Mr. Briggs of the Speech and Theatre Department. Airport confusion provided the initial action of the play. A family of four, two elderly ladies, an actress and manager, a husband and wife and a tall Texan were passengers on the flight doomed for Cuba. Played by Sal Azzaro, the Cuban General attempted to hijack the airborne plane to Cuba. His attempt, however, was thwarted by a cleverly arranged fake bomb scare. The plane lands, the Cuban hijacker is apprehended, and the passengers arrive safely at the airport.

The songs as well as the film shown at intervals during the play provided original innovations to make "This Is Your Captain Speaking" successful.

The cast joins in the song "I Know What I'd Do."

The passengers await their adventure on flight 709.

Christmas on Campus

Three groups provided singing entertainment for the start of the Christmas weekend on Friday, December 12th. A folk singer provided variety in the program followed by the "ING", a New York City rock group who also played for the dance held on Saturday. The evening was highlighted by the loud rock sounds of the well known Rhinoceros. The traditional decoration contest took place Saturday afternoon as the classes showed their originality. The annual Christmas banquet centered around the theme "Christmas is Timeless". Candlelight and delicious food transformed the dining hall into a restaurant complete with atmosphere and entertainment. Everyone enjoyed the clever monologue given by Dr. Hunter followed by the songs of Glenn Billingsley and Anne Hench. Students rocked to the music of the "ING" at the annual Christmas dance. The white snow which fell in the early morning hours of Sunday added a cover to the campus which completed Christmas Weekend at Juniata.

The Junior Class didn't quite make it!

The Sophomore Class decorated Founders this year and took first place in a scene depicting the manger.

Christmas Decorations

Oller Hall, decorated by the Class of 1973, became Santa's busy workshop.

Juniata students and their guests were entertained by three groups on Christmas weekend. The well known Rhinoceros, a folk singer, and the "ING" provided enjoyable entertainment.

The evening was climaxed with the appearance of the Rhinoceros at Juniata.

The Golden Horns provide music for dancing.

Mid-Winter Dance

Valentine hearts and decorations filled Ellis Hall Dining Room for the traditional Mid-Winter Formal Dance. A dinner dance, a first of the year, was sponsored by the Freshmen Class. Juniata students and their guests were entertained by two guitarists during the smorgasbord dinner. Two heart-shaped cakes weighing 140 pounds each, baked by Jake decorated two tables in the room. A center dance floor and music by the Golden Horns, our own Juniata Dance Band, created the perfect atmosphere for a Valentine's Dance.

Members of the Eva Jessye Choir

A unique interpretation was presented in Oller Hall by the Eva Jessye Choir. 'The Hallelujah Train' was their subject and their singers, dancers, and instrumentalists certainly presented the audience with an unusual performance.

The concert given by Deborah Cook and Linda Burkhart was a delightful experience. The artists offered a play on 'The Telephone' and the 'Impressero.'

"Rhinoceros"

"Rhinoceros" by Eugene Ionesco, a savage commentary on the absurdity of the human condition made tolerable by self-delusion, was presented by the Department of Speech and Theatre as the Spring Major Play. The leading roles were played by Blake Freeman as the hero, Berenger, Sally Diehm as Daisy and Jeff Naugle as Jean.

Written in 1959 and described as an allegory for our times, "Rhinoceros" depicts the struggle of the individual to maintain his identity and integrity in a world where all others have succumbed to brute force, natural energy and mindlessness.

All Class Night

All Class Night again saw Oller Auditorium packed to the rafters. The Freshmen took first turn on stage, offering another one of those motel productions featuring a wild psychedelic dance scene and typical scenes from Brumbaugh Lounge.

Juniors

The well-directed and well-staged Junior class production walded off with first place and the silver bowl. Dancing girls in an Arabian harem and the zany playing of the heroes, Omar and Abdul, set a standard that was hard to beat. The Juniors called their production "1971 Arabian Nights or Harem Scarum" and won the nod from the judges for the fine ensemble dancing and good comic acting.

Seniors

Second place went to Seniors' "Uncle Arnie and His Gang," a take-off on a TV Children's Show. The production was well staged with realistic TV studio props, TV camera, sound boom, advertising presentation, and Vic Rini as the children's favorite playmate. When compared to the second-place Senior skit, show and tell was never like that!

Look what I found!

Professor Esther Doyle plots in her role as Eleanor of Aquitaine.

The Lion In Winter

King Henry, played by Ralph Church, talks to the throne-seekers.

On February 10th in Oller Auditorium, a cast composed of Juniata faculty members presented a reading "The Lion In Winter." Eleanor of Aquitaine, held prisoner by her husband, has been released for the Christmas season. A power struggle and dispute over the throne arises in the royal household. Eleanor, played by Professor Esther Doyle plots so that Richard may gain the throne. King Henry, however, has other ideas. The trickery and scheming of family members against each other becomes the main action making the reading a powerful drama.

Personalities emerged as each faculty member used talent and imagination in interpreting his character role. The play was successful and an enjoyable experience for all who watched.

Richard the Lionhearted, King Philip of France, Geoffrey, and John discuss the problem of the next King.

Fletcher wrapped up in his presentation of "A Passion For Living."

Focus Series

Francisco Espinosa, a noted guitarist of world acclaim, provided musical entertainment for the college community on January 9th. The program included favorite Spanish rhythms as well as contemporary American tunes.

Bernard Shaw lived once again as Bramwell Fletcher performed his recreation of the playwright in Oller Auditorium on February 5th. Shaw's views on sex, politics, war, and youth were portrayed. Fletcher's presentation of Bernard Shaw has been ranked equal to Hal Holbrook's Mark Twain.

On February 6th, Bramwell Fletcher's presentation was entitled "A Passion For Living." Here, Fletcher borrowed from the works of such literary greats as Dylan Thomas, James Joyce, T. S. Eliot, and Albert Camus. The fame of Broadway was brought to the college community in Bramwell Fletcher's two presentations which the audience thoroughly enjoyed.

Colloquy

One of the biggest events of the year was "Encounter '70," a student organized Colloquy during which the campus played host to approximately 40 professional people to "rap" with students about such subjects as foul air and pollution of streams, poverty and overpopulation, education, racial conflict, the war in Vietnam, sex, the hippie scene and more.

Some of the authorities who came to Juniata for the various panels included Morton Lebow, executive director of the White House Conference on Children; Martain Gogosh, research fellow, Department of International Health, Johns Hopkins University; Col. James Hafer from the White House staff; Jonathan Pinkett, Black Panther official; Albert Rojas, grape workers representative; T. Grace Atkinson from the Women's liberation movement; and many more.

Dick Gregory

No More Tricks

On March 9 and 10, Dick Gregory—a man with a message—delivered it to overflow audiences in Oller Auditorium and in the Ballroom of Ellis Hall. Both in the more formal presentation in Oller and while fielding questions during the late evening and early morning sessions in Ellis, Gregory made it clear what his message was equality for all citizens of the United States. He said the black man in America has been wronged educationally, economically, politically, legally and morally. Although his purpose in the Will Judy Lecture for 1970 was to discuss the condition of black citizens, he also talked about his interest in health, pure foods and the importance of good physical condition.

1969 Football

Head Coach Walt Nadzak kneels beside Senior Co-Captains Jim Hartland and Harry Gicking.

This year, the Indians finished the season with five wins and three losses. The team, under the coaching of Walter Nadzak, defeated Albright, Lycoming, Haverford, Washington and Jefferson, and Western Maryland. Juniata suffered losses only to Susquehanna, Geneva, and Moravian.

The season was highlighted by the record breaking Dave Sparks, who set two new records for Juniata and finished second in the league for rushing.

Pete Straup extended his Juniata record for interceptions. Joel Delewski set all-time college records for kick-return touchdowns during his college career. Many honors were given to Juniata's Indians. Joel Delewski was named an all-star defensive back. Honorable mention among MAC all-stars went to sophomores Dan Rackovan, Dan Browne, Dave Sparks, Sal Mercadante, and to seniors Jeff Bassett and Pete Straup.

Let me at 'em.

Juniata Indians receive the helpful aid of the coaching staff composed of Don Brumbaugh (Interior Line); Walt Nadzak (Head Coach); "Chick" Bunton (Defense); Gary Sheppard (Backfield).

Tired Jim Hartland rests on the bench watching the exciting game.

Cross Country

The Juniata Cross Country team, under the direction of Coach Russ Trimmer, finished the 1969 season with a total of 6 wins and 8 losses. Our team placed 11th in the Middle Atlantic Conference Championship held at LaSalle on November 21st.

Sophomore Dennis Wiedler, winning every meet but the Penn State and Lockhaven game, finished as the top man on the Juniata team.

The Juniata team will lose the valuable help of graduating seniors Captain Aubrey Shenk, Paul Keely, Rick Paulhamus, and Kerry Stanley.

Basketball

Juniata's Indians landed in the Middle Atlantic Conference Northern Division championship playoffs for the second consecutive season, capping a remarkable rebuilding program for Russ Trimmer, head coach. The Tribe hoopsters posted a 14-8 record for their second winning season and improved by one game over their record of last season.

Juniata held an 8-3 record at mid-season, ending with a 22 point victory over Elizabethtown on the home court. The E-towners struck back on their court and additional losses to Kings, Susquehanna and league leading Philadelphia Textile, brought the total to seven. Only one team, Baltimore University, had scored more points against Textile.

Juniors John Smith and Charles Harvey led the team in scoring and rebounds; Smith with a total 434 points and 168 rebounds broke the 1,000 point mark and Harvey led the team in rebounds (235) and assists (111) and was second in scoring with 288 points.

Seniors Bruce Bader and Adam Barnhart, were both chosen Warrior of the Week for their outstanding play. Barnhart, a mathematics major, was praised by Coach Trimmer as a defensive specialist. Bader ranked fourth in total points scored and led the team with his shooting from the field. He is a sociology major.

Juniata had an 8-5 record which entitled them to enter the MAC playoffs, held in Scranton. The Indians placed fourth, which was the same position they held at the end of the season. But next year, with four or five starters returning, Trimmer expects to continue his successful pressure defense.

Juniata's wrestlers posted a 2-9-1 season during which seven of the decisions hinged on one bout. With five inexperienced freshmen in the starting ten, Coach Bill Berrier is on a rebuilding program.

The bright spot of the season was fourth place in the Middle Atlantic Conference tourney at Wilkes-Barre. Heavyweight co-captain Pete Schuyler, a senior from Wilmington, Del., paced the Tribe all season and closed out his career with a first place in the MAC event. Juniata has never before had an individual champion in this tourney. Chris Sherk placed second in 1968.

Fourth place medals were won by Jeff Massingham '71 (118) and Jim McCartney '73 (126).

Schuyler had a season record of 11-1 for a school mark of nine falls to his credit. He failed to pin only two opponents in victories this season.

The Judo Club coached by Bob Fisher held its Fourth Invitational Tournament in December and won over Rutgers, Princeton, Newark College of Engineering, Lock Haven State and Clarion State. The Juniatians also entered the Eastern Collegiate Meet but did not place. Paul Freeman is president; Steve Foose, vice president; Bill MacArthur, treasurer. Graduating seniors are Freeman, MacArthur and Keith VanHorn. Fisher plans to rebuild next year and has matches planned with Howard University and Newark College of Engineering.

He couldn't have shot!

Wait 'till she answers it the next time!

Won't anybody play with me?

Isn't it my roll?

Thank goodness my birthday isn't in the summer!

I bet you think there is something in my pipe.

At least you were able to catch something.

The Greek bunny and her crew!

Who said it couldn't happen to me.

What test tomorrow?
